

SKYLAND METROPOLITAN DISTRICT
Collection Costs

Costs associated with the collection of delinquent accounts are generated through the District Manager and the General Counsel's collection efforts. The actions and fees are as follows:

Reminder Letter Fee:	No charge.
Warning Letter Fee:	Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per Warning Letter.
Attorney Transfer Fee: (Attorney)	Seventy-Five Dollars ($75.00) per Delinquent Account transferred from the District Manager to General Counsel.
Demand Letter Fee:	One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per Demand Letter.
Account Certification:	Amount equal to the all costs associated with the delinquent account (District costs, Attorney costs, and Treasure's fee) up to this point.

Please Note:

Before an account has been certified, all hourly attorneys' fees and costs, incurred by the District to collect unpaid Fees and Charges, shall also be assessed to the Delinquent Account. All hourly attorneys' fees and costs shall be reasonable. Hourly fees shall not be assessed for preparation of the above referenced Demand Letter or for routine certification of accounts to the Gunnison County Treasurer for collection.
